ROOTED IN NATURE,
REIMAGINED FOR TODAY

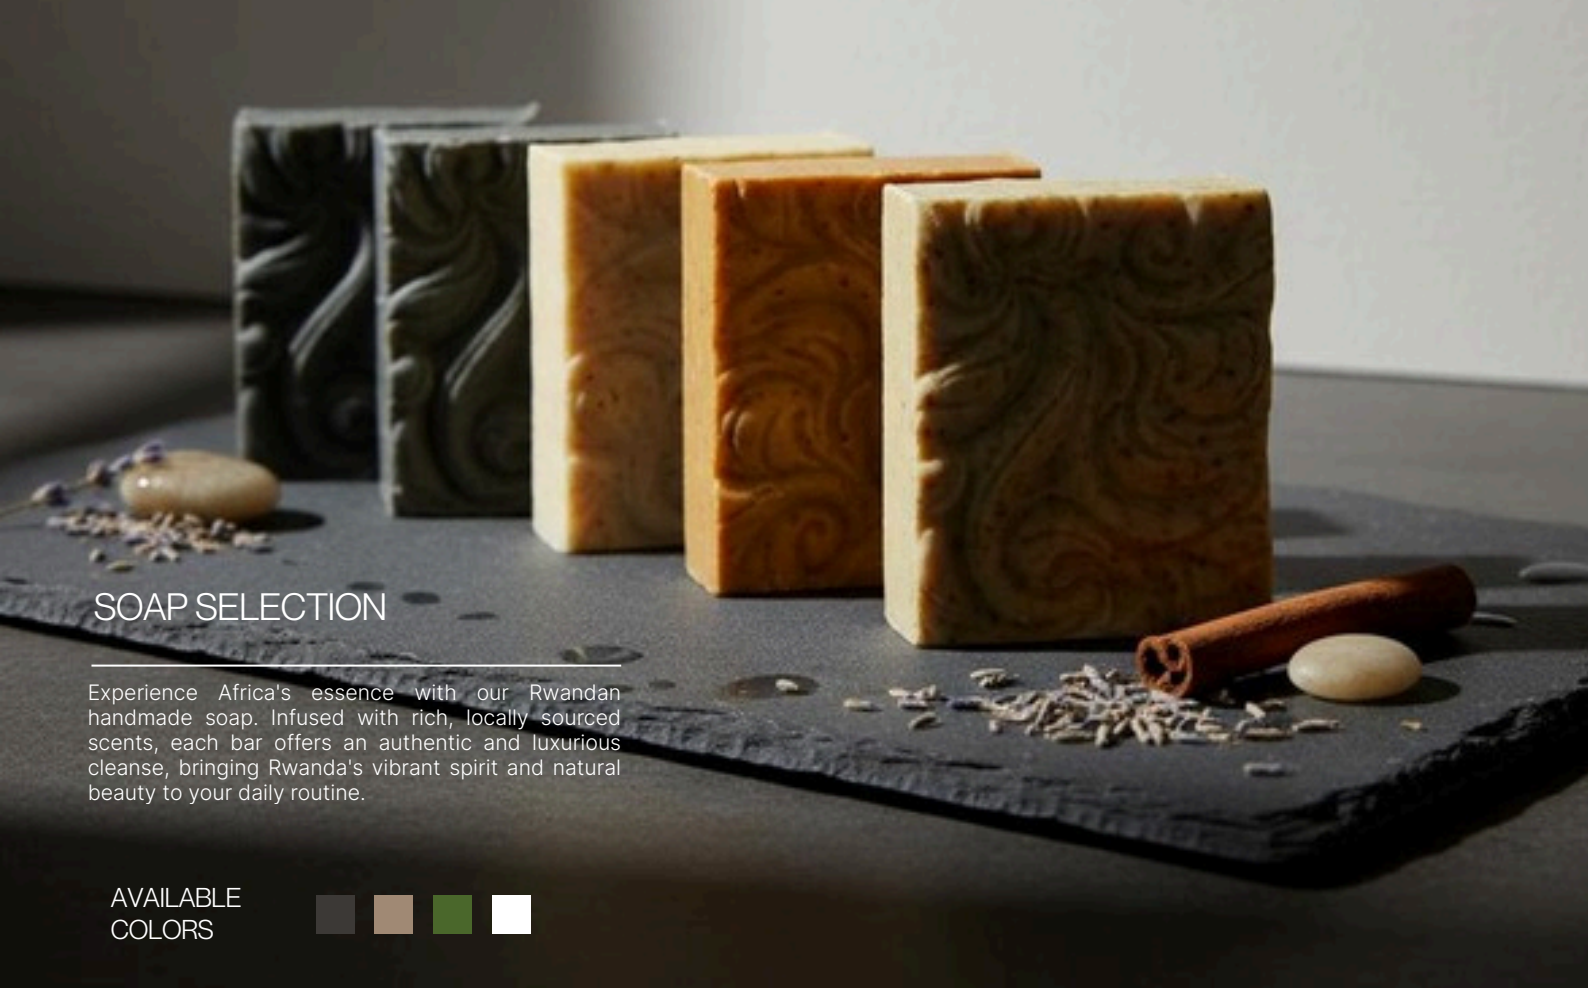

WHO WE ARE

Ngozi Naturals is a Rwandan-born, woman-led clean beauty brand rooted in Africa's botanical heritage. We handcraft natural skincare and wellness products that carry the richness of Rwanda's land, culture, and spirit.

For us, beauty is more than a product it is an experience, a ritual, and a story. Each creation blends indigenous plants with modern formulations, offering guests not just amenities, but a sense of place. From the invigorating scent of Rwandan coffee to the soothing touch of aloe and moringa, our products invite travelers to connect with Rwanda in an intimate, lasting way.

We are committed to circular sustainability, sourcing from local farmers and artisans, and using eco-conscious packaging designed for refill systems. In every partnership, we align with hotels that seek to provide guests with memorable, ethical, and luxurious experiences that extend care from soil to skin.

By choosing Ngozi Naturals, hotels join a movement that celebrates women's empowerment, cultural storytelling, and regenerative commerce while elevating their guest offering with Afro-luxury rooted in authenticity.
